

XM radio is the only communications that works. Automobile dealers promote XM along with OnStar services to provide a better source of safety and in the event of an emergency. XM is both educational and enjoyable to those who chose to use it.